

From a young age Tuesday evenings were spent with the drama studio at Fairmilehead Church and were filled with fun games and exciting original productions. I always looked forward to going. Everyone was always so friendly and Julie, Louise and Amanda were such great teachers. Getting to perform was one of my favourite things to do and is something I've continued to do at University. I'd like to thank the Drama Studio for being a fantastic place to express yourself whilst having fun with friends.

Eleanor Good

Eleanor is studying English Literature at The University Of Glasgow