

Stokelake House

Jamie – I've heard this place is haunted.

Sam- Nah, that's just a story to stop people snooping around.

Blair – Who would come snooping around here?

Sam – Well we're here aren't we. Let's take a look inside. I'd love to climb to the tower up there.

Sam turns the door handle which squeaks. The door is stiff and Sam has to lean against it and push. The door creaks open. The friends go inside.

Blair –Eek cobwebs everywhere. They're in my hair.

Jamie – The furniture is broken. Look a cracked mirror.

Blair– That's unlucky for a start.

Sam – Only if you're superstitious.

Blair – There's a staircase. I bet it leads to your tower Sam.

Sam – Come on then, let's climb it.

Jamie – We better be careful. It could be dangerous.

They climb the staircase and look around.

Blair – This is just the first floor.

Sam – But look there at the end of the corridor, a spiral stair.
That'll lead to the tower.
